Dear Tom, RE: Bulletproof Securities, Inc.

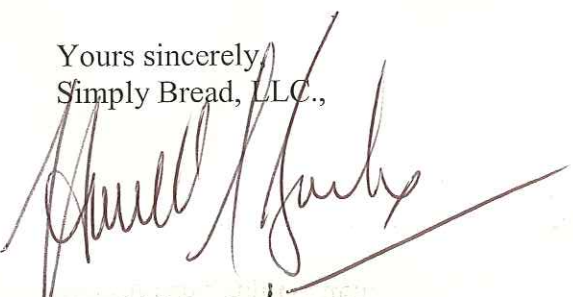

My apologies that it has taken me so long to write this letter, but time got away from me and finally I can step back and catch my breath. There certainly is no excuse given the professional sense of urgency with which you and your colleagues took on the task of providing protection to me and my company during a particularly stressful time.

The professionalism and diligence of your team contributed to a sense of protected comfort for which we are most grateful. All of the while, your discretion, being seen when you needed to be and invisible when that was appropriate, made a huge difference in providing the protection we needed. Most of all, our confidence that whatever needs might arise would be attended to by your team gave us a sense of security that was both tangible and appreciated.

Should you choose to use me or my company as a reference, feel free to do so. Your conduct was exemplary and I have no hesitation in recommending your company for any security challenge that needs to be undertaken.

Kindly extend my regards to Robert and Ryan.

Yours sincerely,
Simply Bread, LLC.,

Chief Executive Officer
